• Resumé (continued) •

November 1998

Volunteer, Flagstaff International Relief Effort (FIRE)

Winter 1999 – 2000

Liaison and Distribution Coordinator, FIRE

Flagstaff, Arizona - Ulan Bator, Mongolia

FIRE is a northern Arizona non-profit organization dedicated to building bridges of cross-cultural communication. Through the Mongolia Project, Flagstaff-based volunteers collect, pack and ship donations to be personally distributed to individuals and relief organizations.

Oversaw the distribution of over 9,000 pounds of clothing and medical supplies throughout Mongolia via a team of volunteers from Flagstaff, AZ. Spent the remainder of the winter collecting needs assessment data for future distributions across the Mongolian steppe.

• Community Activities •

Over the course of the last six years, I have had the pleasure of working with multiple local organizations and businesses through my role as the director of the FPC, including: Flagstaff Symphony Orchestra, FUSD's Camp Colton, Big Brothers/Big Sisters of Flagstaff, FMC's Taylor House, The Whale Foundation, Arizona Highways, Museum of Northern Arizona, Flagstaff Cultural Partners, Girls on the Run, Northern Arizona Pride Association, Grand Canyon Wildlands, Flagstaff Mountain Film Festival, Heritage Square Trust/Kids Squared Program, Grand Canyon Trust, NAU's Special Collections Department, Flagstaff Public Library and the Think Tank Advisory Panel for the Arts Incubator.

• Background and Interests in Relation to BPAC •

My passion has been the incorporation of artistic expression throughout the public realm. This has been a guiding principle while operating the Flagstaff Photography Center on Heritage Square. The continuation of Flagstaff's unique position as a small mountain town is of utmost importance to me, while providing meaningful experiences for the local and visiting populations through the arts.

I have had many friends and colleagues serve on the commission over the years and am now in a position to be able to offer my time and insights as I prepare to introduce my own artistic endeavor, Off the Wall Enterprises.

Background Information

Please explain how your community activities and other relevant experience/interests are applicable to this board or commission.

My experience in architecture and design gives me the awareness to recognize areas in our community that could benefit greatly from city beautification efforts. My design knowledge, project management skills, and community connections would all be valuable assets for this Commission and would help bring steady creativity to its agenda.

Why do you want to serve on the board or commission you listed?

I would be honored to serve on the Beautification & Public Art Commission in Flagstaff because I grew up here. I attended FALA and it gave me an appreciation for the arts which eventually led me to pursue Architecture. I would like to give back to the community which laid the foundation for my career as an Architect, Entrepreneur, and community advocate.
